

Design Your Own: Gate

Blacksmiths often use the forging process (heating up the metal and hammering it to change the shape) to make metal gates and fences. Before they make the gate though they have to design and draw it! Draw your own gate design in the space below!

Make sure to look at the exhibition Beauty in the Boundary upstairs for inspiration!

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for drawing a gate design.